<PERSONAL DATA PROTECTION>

5. Personal data protection

5.1. The administrator of the Participants' personal data (hereinafter referred to as "Personal Data") is the Organizer. Personal Data will be processed in accordance with the Act of August 29, 1997 on the protection of personal data (Journal of Laws of 2016, item 922, as amended), hereinafter referred to as the "Act", and from the date of its repeal, i.e. from May 25, 2018, in accordance with EU Regulation 2016/679 of April 27, 2016, hereinafter referred to as "GDPR". Detailed rules for the processing of Personal Data are presented below.

5.2. Personal Data will be processed by the Organizer with the Participant's consent for purposes related to the organization of the Competition, including, among others: in order to determine the winners and issue prizes (legal basis: Article 23(1)(1) of the Act and Article 6(1)(a) of the GDPR), as well as for purposes related to the implementation of the legally justified interests of the Organizer, such as considering possible complaints from Participants and evidentiary purposes for the purposes of defense in matters relating to claims related to the Competition (legal basis: Article 23(1)(5) of the Act and Article 6(1)(f) of the GDPR). The winners' data will also be processed for the purpose of fulfilling tax obligations in terms of deducting and paying the appropriate tax on the prize in the Competition (legal basis: Article 23(1)(2) of the Act and Article 6(1)(c) of the GDPR).

5.3. Access to Personal Data may be available to authorized employees of the Organizer, postal operators providing postal and transport services to the Organizer (to the extent necessary to deliver the parcel), as well as service providers entrusted under a contract with the processing of Personal Data for the purposes of providing services provided to the Organizer and their authorized employees. Only those recipients for whom there is justification for such access due to the tasks performed and services provided have access to Personal Data. We make sure that our employees undergo appropriate training in the field of personal data protection by familiarizing them with internal data protection policies and procedures or dedicated training programs. All persons authorized to process Personal Data are obliged to keep the data confidential and protect it against disclosure to unauthorized persons.

5.4. Participants' Personal Data will be stored for the period from May 6, 2024 to August 30, 2024.

5.5. Providing Personal Data and consent to their processing by the data subject is voluntary, but necessary in order to register for participation in the Competition.

5.6. The Participant may exercise the following rights against the Organizer, in particular:

- a. the right to request access to your Personal Data and obtain information on their processing, and if they are incorrect, you have the right to request their rectification (in accordance with Article 32(1)(6) and Article 33 of the Act and Article 15 and 16 GDPR),
- b. the right to request restriction of the processing of his data in the situations and on the terms specified in Art. 18 GDPR (The Participant may request that the processing of his or her personal data be limited for the period of verification of their accuracy or until his or her objection to data processing is considered. This right also applies if the Participant believes that the processing of his or her data is unlawful, but he or she does not want the data has been deleted immediately or if the data is needed longer than the assumed processing period due to the establishment or defense of claims),
- c. the right to withdraw previously granted consent to the processing of Personal Data, which, however, will not affect the legality of the processing of the Participant's data, which was based on this premise and took place before he exercised the right to withdraw consent,
- d. the right to request the deletion of data in accordance with Art. 32 section 1 point 6 of the Act and Art. 17 GDPR ("right to be forgotten"),
- e. the right to transfer Personal Data in accordance with Art. 20 of the GDPR, i.e. to receive your personal data from the Organizer in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format, and to request their transfer to another data controller; This right applies only to Personal Data provided to the Organizer by the Participant and in electronic form, for which the basis for processing is the Participant's consent.
- f. the right to object at any time to the processing of his Personal Data for reasons related to his particular situation, if the data are processed by the Organizer as part of the implementation of its legally justified interests (in accordance with Article 21(1) of the GDPR).

5.7. In matters related to the processing of Personal Data and the exercise of the rights of Participants, you can contact the Organizer by sending correspondence to the address of its registered office or the e-mail address of the Data Protection Inspector appointed at the Fortis Agency (contact to the IOD: IOD@fortis.pl). A person who has submitted an application or request regarding the processing of his or her Personal Data, as part of the exercise of his or her rights, may be asked by the Organizer to answer several questions related to his or her Personal Data, which will enable verification of his or her identity. Moreover, the Participant has the right to lodge a complaint about the processing of his/her Personal Data by the Organizer to the Inspector General for Personal Data Protection, and from May 25, 2018, to the President of the Office for Personal Data Protection (address: ul. Stawki 2, 00-193 Warsaw).
